

Top 5 Wedding Locations

Temecula Creek Inn

Known for its sprawling golf course, peaceful accommodations and scenic Temet Grill overlooking the course, Temecula Creek Inn also offers a variety of unique and memorable venues for your wedding day, including a charming 150 year-old Stone House, and Creekside Guest House.

Temecula Creek Inn also has a blog dedicated to their weddings you can check out at <http://temeculaweddings.wordpress.com/>

The Stone House is a 150-year old building made of granite and stone tucked away and almost hidden from sight. It is situated amongst the serene hills of the Stonehouse Golf Course and is surrounded by century old oak trees. This truly romantic setting is graced with a feeling of privacy, and features a spacious, sun-splashed lawn, a reception patio and a charming firepit with an intimate seating area.

For more information on StoneHouse Wedding Packages, click here

The Creekside Guest House is an ideal private setting for up to 120 guests with the lush lawn beneath your feet and stunning views of the surrounding mountains

Secluded across the golf course from the main property, the venue accommodates both your wedding ceremony and reception while the house itself offers the bridal party a relaxed and spacious atmosphere to prepare for your special day.

For more information on Creekside Guest House Wedding Packages, click here

Right now Temecula Creek Inn is having a special: 30% off Wedding Packages January through March 2011.

Any wedding is customizable so you can contact the Wedding Planners at Temecula Creek Inn at TCIweddings@jcreorts.com or call 951.587.1471.

Photo Courtesy of Brightwood Photography www.brightwoodphotography.com